§ 75.225

not meet a minimum cut-off score established for the prior tier.

- (c) The Secretary may establish the minimum cut-off score—
- (1) In the application notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER; or
- (2) After reviewing the applications to determine the overall range in the quality of applications received.
 - (d) The Secretary may, in any tier—
- (1) Use more than one group of experts to gain different perspectives on an application; and
- (2) Refuse to consider an application if the application is rejected under paragraph (b) of this section by any one of the groups used in the prior tier.

§ 75.225 What procedures does the Secretary use if the Secretary decides to give special consideration to novice applications?

- (a) As used in this section, "novice applicant" means—
- (1) Any applicant for a grant from ED that—
- (i) Has never received a grant or subgrant under the program from which it seeks funding;
- (ii) Has never been a member of a group application, submitted in accordance with §§ 75.127-75.129, that received a grant under the program from which it seeks funding; and
- (iii) Has not had an active discretionary grant from the Federal Government in the five years before the deadline date for applications under the program.
- (2) In the case of a group application submitted in accordance with §§75.127–75.129, a group that includes only parties that meet the requirements of paragraph (a)(1) of this section.
- (b) For the purposes of paragraph (a)(1)(iii) of this section, a grant is active until the end of the grant's project or funding period, including any extensions of those periods that extend the grantee's authority to obligate funds.
- (c) If the Secretary determines that special consideration of novice applications is appropriate, the Secretary may either—
- (1) Establish a separate competition for novice applicants; or

- (2) Give competitive preference to novice applicants under the procedures in 34 CFR 75.105(c)(2).
- (d) Before making a grant to a novice applicant, the Secretary imposes special conditions, if necessary, to ensure the grant is managed effectively and project objectives are achieved.

§75.231 Additional information.

After selecting an application for funding, the Secretary may require the applicant to submit additional information.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C. 1221e-3 and 3474)

§ 75.232 The cost analysis; basis for grant amount.

- (a) Before the Secretary sets the amount of a new grant, the Secretary does a cost analysis of the project. The Secretary:
- (1) Verifies the cost data in the detailed budget for the project;
- (2) Evaluates specific elements of costs; and
- (3) Examines costs to determine if they are necessary, reasonable, and allowable under applicable statutes and regulations.
- (b) The Secretary uses the cost analysis as a basis for determining the amount of the grant to the applicant. The cost analysis shows whether the applicant can achieve the objectives of the project with reasonable efficiency

§ 75.251 The budget period.

- (a) The Secretary usually approves a budget period of not more than 12 months, even if the project has a multi-year project period.
- (b) If the Secretary approves a multiyear project period, the Secretary:
- (1) Makes a grant to the project for the initial budget period; and
- (2) Indicates his or her intention to make contination awards to fund the remainder of the project period.

(Authority: 20 U.S.C. 1221e-3 and 3474)

§ 75.253 Continuation of a multi-year project after the first budget period.

- (a) The Secretary may make a continuation award for a budget period after the first budget period of an approved multi-year project if:
- (1) The Congress has appropriated sufficient funds under the program;
 - (2) The recipient has either—
- (i) Made substantial progress toward meeting the objectives in its approved application; or
- (ii) Obtained the Secretary's approval of changes in the project that—
- (A) Do not increase the cost of the grant; and
- (B) Enable the recipient to meet those objectives in succeeding budget periods;
- (3) The recipient has submitted all reports as required by §75.118, and
- (4) Continuation of the project is in the best interest of the Federal Government.
- (b) Subject to the criteria in paragraph (a) of this section, in selecting applications for funding under a program the Secretary gives priority to contination awards over new grants.
